Key highlights:

Regional Council began with a moment of reflection. Chair Henry wished the municipal equipment operators representing Durham Region at the Association of Ontario Road Supervisors Provincial Safety Truck Rodeo good luck.

Regional Council approved 2024-COW-39, which outlines the detailed direction and guidelines for the 2025 Regional Business Plans and Property Tax Supported Budget.

Council approved 2024-SS-7 to advance detailed project design services for Regional housing development projects, including the Durham Regional Local Housing Corporation Christine Crescent redevelopment and 1635 Dundas Street Phase 2. Council also approved report 2024-SS-8, naming the new 200-bed Long-Term Care Home located in north Pickering, "Seaton Village."

Additional capital financing for the construction of the Clarington Police Complex (Phase 2) in the Municipality of Clarington was approved. See report 2024-COW-38 for details.

Council approved the transfer of Regional financial assistance funds from Durham Region Non Profit Housing Corporation's (DRNPHC's) affordable rental housing project at 200 Baseline Road in Clarington, to DRNPHC's affordable rental housing project at 1707 Ritson Road in Oshawa, effective immediately.

A recording of the September 25 Regional Council meeting is available on durham.ca, and on the Region's YouTube page. The next regularly scheduled Regional Council Meeting is October 23, 2024, at 9:30 a.m.
